We also transfer your data to Microsoft in the USA. Here, too, we have put in place appropriate safeguards to protect your data.

6. Duration of storage of personal data

After collection, your data will be stored by the responsible party for as long as is necessary for the respective task fulfilment, taking into account the statutory retention periods in accordance with § 257 HGB; § 147 AO.

7. Rights of the data subject(s)

According to the GDPR you have the following rights:

If your personal data is being processed, you have the right to be informed by the data controller about all personal data that concerns you personally (Art. 15 GDPR).

If the personal data that is being processed is incorrect or inaccurate, you are entitled to demand for the data to be corrected (Art. 16 GDPR).

If the relevant legal requirements are fulfilled, you may demand for the deletion or limitation of the processing and have the right to object to the processing altogether (Art. 17, 18, and 21 GDPR).

If you have consented to data processing or a data-processing contract and the processing of data is carried out using automated procedures, you may be entitled to data transferability (Article 20 GDPR).

Furthermore, a right of appeal exists with a supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR).

8. Right to revoke consent

If you have officially consented to the processing of your data by the data controller, you may revoke your consent for the future at any time by sending an email to info@fintegral.com. The legality of the data processing carried out on the basis of the consent that was obtained prior to the revocation will not be affected.
